The Pride of Bangkok, this is the biggest upscale shopping complex in Thailand and South East Asia. It includes a variety of high-end stores, restaurants and entertainment complex, offering so many fantastic leisure activities. It is neighbored by Siam Center and Siam Skytrain Station.

CentralWorld mega-shopping complex offers one of the most exciting shopping experiences in Bangkok, It has everything from brand name clothing boutiques, funky fashion, high-tech gadgets, bookshops and designer furniture to imported groceries, a lineup of banks, beauty salons, gourmet eateries and even an ice-skating rink. With so many tantalising options to explore, you could easily spend half a day here without realising it

Emporium is an absolutely amazing shopping center and some would say the best in Bangkok, It has a cinema, and a lot of quality designer wear. They also have an excellent food court at ridiculously cheap prices, which offers diners a lovely view over the adjacent small park.

Open : From 10am to 9 pm

Gateway Ekamai mall aims to offer an alternative shopping experience from the cookie-cutter centers across Bangkok. The is meant to epitomise the Japanese lifestyle that Thai people embrace readily with a mix of restaurants, clothes stores, health and beauty shops, as well as an edutainment centre, a large IT zone and a 24 hour supermarket. whilst it probably won't deliver for Japanophiles its ease og access via the skywalk link to BTS Ekamai and decent, affordable selection of restaurants under one roof is sure to attract visitors

Terminal 21 brings the dream of traveling the world to downtown Bangkok, with its cutting-edge concept that places several world-famous cities under roof. Find yourself wandering around a maze of shops in Tokyo City, sauntering down London's Carnaby Street, bagging a bargain in an Istanbul zোক, or shopping for something to fill your growling stomach at the Fisherman's Wharf in San Francisco
